Featured Speakers

Michael Erlich, Esquire

Assistant District Attorney

Philadelphia County District Attorney's Office

For over twenty-five years, Mike has served as an Assistant District Attorney in Philadelphia specializing in appellate litigation. In that capacity, he has briefed and argued a wide variety of suppression issues and advised trial attorneys on matters relating to pending motions. He has spoken at legal education programs for the judges of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas and at programs sponsored by the Pennsylvania Bar Institute and the International Homicide Investigators Association. Mike graduated from La Salle University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School and clerked in Superior Court for the Honorable Phyllis W. Beck. In 2015, the District Attorney of Philadelphia presented him with an award in recognition of his work as a prosecutor in the area of searches and seizures.

Richard Nilsen, Esquire

Lieutenant - Forensic Services Unit

Montgomery County District Attorney's Office

Richard Nilsen began his 30-year law enforcement career with the Lower Merion Township Police Department where he served in the Patrol and Investigations Divisions. After 12 years, he was hired by the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office as a County Detective and assigned to the Homicide Unit. He served in that capacity for 11 years, until promoted to Lieutenant and placed in charge of the Forensic Services Unit. Rich received his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Villanova University and his law degree from Widener University School of Law. For the past 25 years Rich has participated in countless police training programs, including Search and Seizure; Interview and Interrogation; Advanced Crime Scene Investigation; Death Investigation; and Criminal Law and Ethics. He is an adjunct graduate faculty member at DeSales, Arcadia, Temple and Thomas Jefferson Universities.
